BLESSED JUNIOR NGORIMA

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Driven and enthusiastic BSc Computer Science and Software Engineering student, I have a passion for machine learning and software development. I have already achieved notable success, placing 3rd in the 2022 Biust and BOMAID hackfest with an innovative Android application. In addition, I have expanded my knowledge and skills through courses such as Beginning C++ Programming and currently enrolled in Complete Machine Learning and Data Science Bootcamp on Udemy. I have also applied my knowledge to real-world challenges such as conducting data analysis on Robinhood stocks using python libraries to make informed inferences. Through my hard work and dedication, I am constantly seeking new opportunities to learn and grow in this dynamic field.
